

February 2020

As a British citizen I am very sad that the U.K. is leaving the European Union.

For just over half of the country autonomy is more important than belonging.

Of course both are important. We are all different and yet we are all connected. The challenge is learning how to live together with our diversity.

What does it mean to belong? This is a theme that has recently been explored in the January edition of „The Knowing Field“ journal and we will be inviting people to share and learn in our two ISCA Facebook groups and various Monthly members calls this month and explore how we can further benefit from belonging to ISCA.

Belonging is also the overriding theme of our gathering in Mexico in April 2021. We have a number of proposals from ISCA members for workshops and presentations and it is not too late for you to be included.

We have extended the deadline for proposals to February 29th 2020.

The board will be looking through the proposals and devising the program for the Gathering in the coming weeks. We have also created a special website for the Mexico Gathering in which we list all the details about the Gathering and presenters.

This information will be finalised soon so act now if you want to be included when the website is launched.

New Logo for ISCA Members

At the request of our members we have designed an ISCA Member Logo. All members are invited to use it in their correspondence, on their websites...

The logo comes in different digital formats:

- jpg (CMYK for print / RGB for screen)
- png and gif for websites

Please order your logo at info@isca-network.org

New ISCA Flyer in 3 languages

We have developed the ISCA flyer which will come in three languages: English, French and Spanish.

We plan to distribute the flyer at congresses and intensives like eg. in Australia, Germany...

At the moment, we do not have the budget for sending flyers to all our members. Therefore we will come up with a pdf brochure that can easily be sent by mail.

We will keep you informed!
